LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

At this year's first meeting of the Roaring Lions at the Masker's Club in Hollywood, about 250 attended. Members of the U. of So. Cal. coaching staff were guests.

New furnishings for the parlors were received from Mrs. Barolotti. They include an historical Carrara marble bust.

Mr. John B. Farr donated the library with nearly 2500 books, mostly theological and philosophical works in Italian.

A professional retired bookbinder, Mr. A. Vergenthaler, runs the new enlarged bindery.

All the faculties of the University met Sunday evening, September 10.

In the death of Dan Murphy, who was also on the Board of Regents, the University has lost an outstanding benefactor.

Books by three faculty members are being used in class: "History of Greek Philosophy" by Father Heney; "Orientation" by Mr. Garret, and "Fundamentals of the U. S. Government" by Dr. Kramer.

Father Heney's "History of Greek Philosophy" contains 260 pages. His "Theodicy" has been abbreviated to 123 for Non-Majors in Philosophy. It will be used in the second semester this year. He is preparing a "History of Modern Philosophy from Descartes to Kant" for the 1940-41 school year.

The long desired paving of Loyola Boulevard is a reality. The roads around the faculty building were also surfaced. 150,000 ft. of composition asphalt paving were laid.

In the library new indirect lighting has been installed, and the walls and ceiling redecorated.

At Levining in Mono Co., Father Maginnis has built a permanent chapel.

Radio, languages and psychology have been added to the courses of the "Downtown" Evening School.

A student totally blind, James Sullivan, is a freshman at Del Rey.

With registration unfinished, 143 have been enrolled in the Law School. Irreparable loss was suffered in the death of Prof. J. Martin Taylor, killed instantly in an auto accident. J. Norman McDonough, for the last two years on the N. Y. Univ. faculty, has been engaged as resident professor. He graduated from St. John's High School and College, Cleveland, and took his A. B. and A. M. at Western Reserve University.

A series of articles on "The Story of Lourdes" by Father Spearman is being run concurrently by the Pasadena Star-News. The articles popularize the new Lourdes shrine at St. Elizabeth's, Altadena.

Philosophy has been departmentalized into Majors and Minors under the deanship of Father Heney.

The Radio Workshop has begun its fourth year. A special orchestra will be organized to play for programs. Shortwave broadcasts to Europe, England and S. America are scheduled to go via the Columbia Broadcasting System.

LOS GATOS

September 6, Pere Pierre Charles gave the community a talk on the missions in Africa and India.

During Father Master's absence, Father Provincial while making the visitation, gave the exhortations for the Novices.

Novices started grape picking on Wednesday, September 27. Most of the grapes this year will come from the vintage on Novitiate owned property.

Brother Richardson from Detroit entered September 2. Brother George Wong, first native from our Chinese Mission to be accepted at Los Gatos, entered September 3.

Nine Juniors left for the Mount in time for schola brevis. September 7. Messrs. J. Reilly and R. Roberts have started their philosophical studies at St. Louis.

On September 8, Brother Klaeser, and on September 15, Brother Clifford pronounced the vows.

September 4, Fathers Provincial and Rector attended the Golden Jubilee of O'Connor Sanitarium.

September 1, the Mass of the Holy Ghost was celebrated.

The Roothan Circle, Juniorate organization of the Apostleship of Prayer, held its first meeting for the year in September, with Father Rector giving a talk on the Sacred Heart.

SAN FRANCISCO

The University has an increase of 153 in its registration. Last year the total was 922 (Day 599, Evening 212, Law 111). This year the total is 1075 (Day 662, Evening 306, Law 107).

Father Mark Gaffney gave the retreat to the students of the University. The retreat closed with the Mass of the Holy Ghost at which he preached the sermon.

Father Peter Dunne is conducting the annual Inquiry Class with two lectures every Monday night.

The military department added publicity to the University, when an article on our R. O. T. C. appeared in the Coast Artillery Journal, written by members of the Staff on Military Science.

Nine members of the community each give one of the talks for the Carmelites' Little Flower Novena. The same system is followed for the Ladies' Sodality Retreat.

The San Francisco Chapter of the Reserved Officers' Association held a reception to honor the U. S. F. unit of the R. O. T. C. Twenty-four senior cadet officers were present. Major General Paul Malone was the speaker of the evening; Father Rector spoke for the University.

SANTA CLARA

Registration for 1939-40 is 516 students, which is 3 less than for the previous year. Freshman 171 is one of the largest classes of recent years.

Father Donnelly conducted the annual student retreat, which closed with the Mass of the Holy Ghost on September 9. Father Peter Dunne preached the sermon for the Mass.

The burial of Father John Regan took place August 31, following a requiem mass said by Father Provincial.

Father Hubbard returned September 17 from his latest Alaskan exploration. He was booked for a lecture in Reno on September 22. He then left for the East to commence his annual lecture tour.

Father Bacigalupi inaugurated the 1939-40 Catala Club lectures on September 21, with the first of a series of three lectures on the opera "Manon."

Dean Owens of the Law College has been appointed a member of an educational committee of the American Bar Association. The committee of six members is composed of deans and professors from the colleges of law of universities in all parts of the country.

The College of Law has received full approval from the American Bar Association.

The father of Dean Kelly of the College of Business Administration died at Watsonville.

George Silvestri, resident Junior student, plunged in his sleep through the open window of his fourth floor room in Nobili Hall on September 10. He crashed to the tile roof of the porch and then rolled off to the lawn. He sustained no injuries other than a few cuts about the feet and legs.

Varsi Library has been enriched with a documentary library of English history—the "Rolls" series, issued by the Master of Rolls, containing 253 volumes. The series contains valuable source material for the study of the Middle Ages. Additional bound copies of the "London Times," containing material on English politics, are also among recent library additions.

Campus improvements include a new filtration system for the swimming pool, which provides a complete change of water every ten hours and elimination of harmful bacteria. A new intra-mural athletic field has been created by clearing the remnants of the old ranch adjacent to Ryan Field.

BELLARMINE PREP

The Mass of the Holy Ghost was celebrated on September 19 by Rev. Fr. Rector at the Santa Clara Mission Church, with the faculty in attendance in the sanctuary. The occasional sermon was preached by Father Rice. During the Mass the Sanctuary Society, in cassock and surplice, knelt at the altar rail.

On September 15, one of the students while trying to board a moving train at the College Park station slipped and fell under the wheels. The left leg was amputated by the train. Taken to the hospital he was accompanied by Father Franchi who remained in constant attendance throughout the operation. A blood transfusion was deemed necessary and the scholastics volunteered to take the blood test, while a number of students were being gathered for the same purpose. Mr. Monihan finally was selected by the doctors and gave the transfusion. The boy seems to be convalescing nicely.

The scholastics conducted a Solemn High Mass coram pontifice at St. Joseph's Church which was held in the presence of Bishop Connolly for the annual convention of the Italian Catholic Federation.

Water from the well which was drilled during the summer has replaced city service throughout the campus and has proved very satisfactory. Despite constant use in the gardens and turf there has been no lowering of the water level.

The annual Barbecue of the Dads' Club as the initial meeting of the new school year was attended by over 150 enthusiastic members. The men welcomed the new faculty members and expressed their desire to work for the betterment of the school during the ensuing year.

Just prior to the opening of school a change in status brought Mr. Gilligan from Loyola U. and sent Mr. Frugoli to Loyola High. Mr. Gilligan is handling all the first high Latin classes.

St. Ign. High, Frs. Lyons and McGrorey.

On September 3, the Italian Catholic Federation had a Solemn High Mass at St. Joseph's, San Jose, in the presence of the newly consecrated Auxiliary Bishop of San Francisco, the Most Rev. Thomas A. Connolly. It was the first appearance of the Bishop at an ecclesiastical function. Over 1000 people were present. Father Scanlon, Chaplain of the Federation, sang the Mass.

There are 30 Tertiaries at Port Townsend. The Long Retreat given by Father Leo Martin, the new Instructor of Tertiaries, ended at the close of September.

The total for the Loyola University Laymen's retreats is 209.

Messrs. Roberts and Reilly met the flood conditions in the Imperial Valley, when they were en route to St. Louis. They had to travel by bus through the submerged area.

Among the many summer visitors from Europe were Pere Charles, lecturer in the Gregorian and Louvain Universities; Father D'Arcy of Campion Hall, Oxford; Father John Hannon, formerly Rector at Miltown Park, Ireland, now Apostolic Visitor to the Irish Christian Brothers.

At El Retiro 31 Fathers from Fresno made the first retreat in September, 36 the second. The weather was hot, but cooler than Fresno. Father Ring gave the exercises.

In August the Sacramento Clergy, 37 in the first and 36 in the second retreat, made the exercises under Father Ring at El Retiro.

Some status changes in China: Fr. Lennon, Rector at Gonzaga; Fr. McGreal, Pastor at Christ the King; Fr. Lipman, assist. at Christ the King; Fr.

Falvey at Chutun, Ku; Fr. Gatz somewhere in Haichow; Br. Finnegan at Nanking.

The U. S. Navy has been very good to our Fathers when they went back and forth between Nanking and Shanghai. Before Admiral Yarnell left Shanghai for the States, Father Lipman wrote to thank him for the favors received. Two days before sailing, the Admiral wrote:

"Dear Father Lipman:

"Many thanks to Father Kearney, Father Magner, and yourself for your kind letter and good wishes. I leave China with mixed feelings of pleasure and regret; pleasure at returning to my homeland after six years of absence, regret at leaving the many good friends we have made during the past three years.

"I have the greatest admiration for those sturdy Americans such as yourself who have carried on in the face of great dangers and difficulties and have refused to be driven from their appointed tasks. I am confident that better days are ahead, and that the present tragic situation must come to an end.

"You may rest assured that China will be foremost in our minds for a long time to come, and also all of our good friends we leave behind.

"May I express to you, Father Lipman, my heartfelt wishes for success and good health in the splendid work you are doing.

"Most sincerely,

"H. E. YARNELL,

"Rear Admiral, U. S. N."

1939 Aug. 28, d. San Diego.

Bishop Buddy asked for a priest to help at Point Loma; Father Regan was sent and worked wonders. The parish was in excellent condition, when he handed it over to the new pastor, the Chancellor of the diocese.

This task finished, he was urgently requested by the Bishop for San Ysidro, a poor parish on the Mexican border line. There Father neglected himself, but took devoted care of the poor. The parish was poor, for he trinated on Sundays and received the sum total of $9.00 for his own support and for the needy.

Even so he got friends to pay for renovating the church. He built a convent for the Mexican Sisters and a chapel, bought 1½ acres for the convent and the school in which in 1938 there were 200 children. When he left San Ysidro after a year and a half, there were no debts.

Having full faculties from the Mexican Bishop, he went on many sick calls in Mexico, and made many helpful friends in this way.

Diabetes changed him from Chaplain of Mercy Hospital, San Diego, to a patient. This caused his death at the close of August.

Point Loma sent a delegation to the funeral and floral pieces for the coffin. San Ysidro, poor though it is, sent a floral wreath. On the eve of the funeral the parlors were filled five times by groups to recite the beads. Bishop Buddy asked to be allowed to accord the deceased all the honors of a pastor. The Bishop was celebrant at the Solemn Requiem. The Priests' choir sang the Mass; 50 priests attended. The eulogy was spoken with deep appreciation by the Bishop.

Bishop Buddy sent Father Peter Nolan, S.J. (Chie. Prov.) with the remains for the services at Santa Clara, where a second Requiem Mass was said by Father Provincial.
